Meet Dr. Ralph Nader

Dr. Nader has been in private practice for 30 years as a Clinical and Interventional Cardiologist. He received his medical degree from Northwestern University in Chicago and completed his specialty training at the Boston Beth Israel Hospital of Harvard University and the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Nader is board-certified and regularly updates his certification in Internal Medicine, Cardiovascular Diseases, Nuclear Cardiology, and Interventional Cardiology. He is a Fellow of the American College of Cardiology, The American Society of Nuclear Cardiology, The Society of Cardiac Angiography and Interventions, and The American College of Physicians.

Dr. Nader founded Miami Center for Advanced Cardiology in 2008. He is an advocate of preventive care and screening for early detection of cardiovascular problems and clinical maintenance care of the heart to avoid surgical intervention for as long as appropriate. He has decades of experience in performing and evaluating diagnostic and therapeutic procedures such as catheterizations, balloon angioplasties, and cardiovascular stenting.

Dr. Nader believes that a healthy lifestyle assisted by medication and technology when necessary, can lead to a long and active life. He has admitting privileges at Mount Sinai Medical Center (Miami Beach) and Aventura Hospital.

In his free time, Dr. Nader enjoys spending time with his family and walking his dog Maya.
